Description

I noticed this in a photo (<http://i.imgur.com/0kP8Y45.jpg>) posted on the forum (<http://forum.kerbalspaceprogram.com/threads/24533-Show-off-your-awesome-KSP-pictures%21?p=864051&viewfull=1#post864051>) showing a "Crew Report while in space near Tylo".

The blurb reads "...is more cratered then the other." "then" should be "than". I think this is 0.23.
