After transmitting science from research lab it displays the wrong amount of science added to your career. It says 1.x instead of the actual x amount from what I can tell.

What is the name of the craft? Isn't it "Space Station 1", by accident?

Yes, the name of the ship was clearly "Space Station 1". The message has the name of the ship, a period, a space, then the amount of science. Not a bug -- this report was just a misreading of the text.
