Description

Downloaded v1.6.0 from the website (.ZIP file, not the installer), intending to test another unrelated issue (which was fixed! woohoo!) and discovered a graphical glitch with the MK16 in-line parachute. As the attached file shows, the transparency between the chute lines carries through into the underside of the parachute. The yellow exterior displays correctly, as do the lines themselves. Sent another ship up with all of the available stock parachutes, and the yellow Mk16 is the only one with this issue.

KSP 1.6.0.2395 (WindowsPlayer x64) en-us

Non-Steam version

No mods, clean install, Making History was not installed at this time

Played on 64 bit Windows 7 SP1 Home Premium, Intel i5-3570K, 16GB RAM, GTX 1060 6GB graphics card
