NullReferenceException in VAB Editor when rotating BreakingGround storage container

06/19/2019 09:25 PM - HansAcker

Status:	Resolved	Start date:	06/19/2019
Severity:	Low	% Done:	100%
Assignee:	Robert.Keech
Category:	Application
Target version:	1.10.0
Version:	1.9.0	Language:	English (US)
Platform:	Linux	Mod Related:	No
Expansion:	Breaking Ground

Description

Steps to reproduce:

- enter VAB
- select RC-001S guidance unit or Clamp-O-Tron docking port (issue only appears with some root parts, not with others)
- select SEQ-9 container module and place it below the root part (issue often does not appear when the container is placed above the root part)
- pick up the root part, press w and drop the part

-> parts vanish, "Exception: NullReferenceException" logged in Debug Console, not in KSP.log. No further log entries.

The craft still exists in the editor. Trying to save it results in another "Exception: NullReferenceException".

History

#1 - 10/19/2019 04:09 PM - HansAcker

- Version changed from 1.7.2 to 1.8.0

Still exists in 1.8.0 (tested with docking port as root)

Player.log:

```

```
(Filename: ./Runtime/Export/Debug/Debug.bindings.h Line: 35)
```
