Description
When launching rockets, sometimes I like to only have 1 kerbal in a 3-kerbal module and others I like to fill up 3 hitchhikers worth of kerbals. It would be nice for the VAB to remember how many crew go in a particular rocket when I save it. As it stands, I have to make sure I put crew in as the last thing I do before every launch of any rocket that doesn't have exactly 1 full crew module.

Still persists in 0.24!
Crew is even not saved when switching between Building/Action Groups and Crew Roster.
