History

#1 - 10/16/2019 07:37 PM - Anth12

- File screenshot172.png added

1.7.3 for comparison.

#2 - 10/16/2019 07:45 PM - Anth12

Only Eve is having the issue. Kerbin and Laythe are fine.

#3 - 10/16/2019 08:07 PM - Anth12

Changes in graphics settings does not affect the water being textureless or missing the effect

Concerns:

The screenshots I have supplied show the eve water from 1.7.3 to 1.9.0

Is the colour now supposed to be a darker colour?

1. If the colour is now supposed to be darker then as of 1.9.0 I consider it resolved
2. If the colour is what it was supposed to be originally (1.7.3) then I dont consider it resolved

Personal Preference: The pink verses purple shows more contrast than everything looking dark purple

Note: the oceans were originally purple, but a while back, I believe around 1.4, they changed to pink. I believe it may have been a prior Unity upgrade, but whatever the case, everyone hated when they turned pink. They are back to the original purple color
I'm attaching a screenshot from version 1.3.1 that shows the original purple colored oceans for reference

Thanks for the clarification.

I had the option to set to "Resolved" before but after setting to "Needs Clarification" I have lost that option.

If someone can do the honors and resolve this bug for me? :)
